Fieldstone Summer Showcase Welcomes
Classic Communications as Public Relations Agency

Halifax, MA – June 8, 2010 – The Fieldstone Summer Showcase is pleased to welcome Classic Communications as its public relations agency.

The Fieldstone Summer Showcase returns August 25-29 to the Fieldstone Equestrian and Show Facility in Halifax, MA, for a week of top-notch equestrian competition, great prize money, and nightly parties, that have become a favorite among the horse show's exhibitors.

“We are excited to have Classic Communications join us this year,” said Fieldstone President Scott Clawson. “Classic Communications President Marty Bauman and his team bring decades of experience in the promotion of equestrian sports. Their experience, paired with an unrivaled reputation for professionalism at some of the sport's biggest and most prestigious events, will help us reach our goal of establishing the Fieldstone Summer Showcase as a major hunter-jumper horse show.”

Classic Communications has been involved in promoting equestrian sports since 1978. Over the years, it has represented many of the nation's premier equestrian events including the Hampton Classic, Lake Placid Horse Show, Rolex Kentucky Three-Day Event and Winter Equestrian Festival among others. Classic represented the United States Equestrian Team, and Marty Bauman served as the Team's Director of Public Relations, from 1990 until 2004 when it became the USET Foundation. Classic's international experience includes overseeing media for seven FEI World Cup Finals and for this year's Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games. Bauman also served as the equestrian press officer for the U.S. Olympic Committee at three Olympic Games.

“We are happy to join the Fieldstone team and help promote their signature event, the Fieldstone Summer Showcase,” said Bauman. “The Summer Showcase at Fieldstone is one of New England's premier equestrian events and we are honored to be associated with it.”

The schedule for this year's Summer Showcase is highlighted by the $35,000 Grand Prix, which will be held on Fieldstone's pristine, all grass Grand Prix field. The Summer Showcase will feature several other special classes including a $10,000 Child/Adult Jumper Classic, $7,500 High Junior/Amateur Owner Jumper Classic, a member event of the Cavalor Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series, and the $2,500 Low Junior/Amateur Owner Classic Jumper Classic.

Fieldstone Equestrian & Show Facility is one of New England's premier equestrian event venues. Its 100-acre show grounds are located just 28 miles south of Boston, MA. The recently renovated facility offers nine all-weather hybrid sand/felt/fiber show rings, permanent and temporary stabling, ample parking, and a state-of-the-art all-grass Grand Prix field.
